Jones' Silver Bill.

It is Further Discussed in the Senate.

HIS GREAT SPEECH FINISHED.

No Action Taken on the Measure and the Bill Goes Over for the Day—Representatives in the House Talk Tariff During the Entire Session.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—In the senate yesterday the discussion of the silver question was continued.

Mr. Davis, from the pension committee, reported in favor of a disagreement to the house amendment to the dependent pension bill. A conference was ordered and Messrs. Davis, Sawyer and Blodgett were appointed conferees on the part of the senate.

Mr. Bate, offered a long preamble and resolution on the subject of the proposed statue to Lafayette in Lafayette square opposite the White House, condemning the site selected and instructing the committee on the library to examine into the matter—agreed to.

The senate then, at 1 p. m., resumed consideration of the silver bill, and Mr. Jones, of Nevada, continued his speech begun by him Monday. Fears had been expressed, he said, lest gold should leave the country by reason of restoring to silver its full monetary power. Such would not be the case. For every gold dollar that left there would be a silver dollar in circulation. If, however, gold could be kept only on condition that equality and justice should be destroyed who doubted that it should go? The total amounts of silver and of gold in the world stock were about equal; both possessed in common, and neither to any higher degree than the other, all the qualities which are recognized necessary in money. The purpose in using both had always been to preserve society from the result of accidents in production of either, and the effect of demonetization of silver was to defeat that beneficent purpose.

He opposed the idea of redeeming treasury notes on bullion on the ground that when they were so redeemed the monetary circulation would be contracted; and the putting of bullion on the market would not make up to the country for the loss of money from its circulation. He expressed entire confidence in the honesty of purpose and conscientiousness of motive of the present secretary of the treasury, but said that as none of the secretaries for twelve years past had coined a dollar of silver more than compelled by law to do, future secretaries might conscientiously deem it their duty to keep in circulation the least possible amount of the proposed treasury notes, and thus the United States treasury might in effect become a mere purchasing agent for the East India company, or for syndicates of English merchants waiting bullion in order to make their payments to India.

Gold by reason of its greater value, notwithstanding all the legislation in its favor, could never become the common money medium of the world. A gold coin that would represent an average day's labor would be too small for convenient handling. Silver was the money-metal best suited to the mass of the people and to the variety and character of transactions constituting the interchanges of daily life. The supplies of both metals in existence, if united by law, in the full money functions, would have a steadiness of value which could not be obtained by either separately. Were there any conceivable necessity for the demonetization of either metal why, he asked, demonetize that which promised the greater and more steady yield?

In conclusion he said: "I predict, Mr. President, that the restoration of silver to its birthright will mark an epoch in the history of this republic. It will place in circulation an amount of money commensurate with our increasing population. It will give assurance to our languishing industries that the volume of our circulatory medium is not to continue shrinking, and that the tendency of prices shall no longer be downward. It will increase the wages of labor and the prices of the products of labor; it will reduce the price of bonds and other forms of money futures; it will lighten, but not inequally, the burden of mortgages; it will increase largely, though not unjustly, the debt paying and tax paying power of the people. It will loosen the grasp of the creditor from the neck of the debtor.

"The lifting up of silver to its rightful plane by the side of gold will set in motion all the latent energies of the people. In a broader sense than any other question attracting the general attention of mankind is a question of civilization. It embodies the hopes and aspirations of our race. The act of congress, which shall happily solve it, will constitute a decree of emancipation as veritable as any that ever freed serf from thralldom, but more universal in its application. It will proclaim the freedom of the white race the world over; it will lift the bowed head of labor; it will push the threnody of toil; it will inaugurate the true renaissance—a renaissance of prosperity, without which, industry, learning, science, literature, art, are but apples of Sodom."

After a lengthy discussion by a number of other senators the bill went over. Mr. Hoar said that he had reported back Monday from the judiciary committee the house amendment to the anti-trust bill, with an amendment. Some senators on both sides of the chamber thought that the proposed amendment was not so precise and well guarded as it ought to be. He therefore moved to have the whole matter recommitted to the judiciary committee. Agreed to.

After a session for the consideration of executive business, the senate, at 6 o'clock, adjourned.

Considering the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The house met at 11 o'clock, and after the transaction of some routine business went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. After considering thirteen of the 156 pages of the bill, the committee rose and the house at 5:45 p. m. adjourned.

Senate's Secret Session.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The senate in secret session debated for more than an hour the nomination of W. B. Sarsby, of Mississippi, to be consul general to Ecuador. Sarsby was strongly attacked from the Democratic side, Senator Wallhell and Senator George leading the assault. The principal charge brought against him was that he was a political renegade, and that this office had been given him as the price of some valuable documents affecting the election contest of Representative Catchings which he had put in the hands of the Republicans.

Mr. Frye, chairman of the committee on commerce from which the nomination had been reported, made a defense for Mr. Sarsby.

At the close of the debate a vote was taken which would have confirmed the nomination, had not the roll call disclosed the fact that no quorum was present. The senate then adjourned.

GERMAN IN THE SCHOOLS.

Illinois Lutherans Try to Combine With the Catholics.

CHICAGO, May 14.—The first move in the Lutheran church plan to go into politics for the purpose of attacking the compulsory education law, was made Monday, when ex-County Commissioner Semme announced himself as a candidate for the state senate.

At the recent meeting of the Lutheran synod, at Springfield, it was determined to put up candidates for the legislature in certain districts where the Lutheran church is the strongest, pledged to vote for a repeal or a modification of the law. The particular clause aimed at is the one requiring that all the common branches be taught in the English language, and this is the one which the church desires to have stricken out.

Mr. Semme said that the Lutherans would try to nominate and elect members of the legislature in a number of northern districts, hoping to elect enough members pledged to a modification of the compulsory education law to control the balance of power in the legislature and force their point. The Lutherans are almost all Republicans, but in this they expect the aid of the German Catholics, who are largely Democrats, and between the two forces it is thought half a dozen districts can be carried.

A CONTRACT ENTERED INTO

Between Germany and the East African Steamship Company.

BERLIN, May 14.—The provisions of the contract entered into between the German government and the East African Steamship company call for the payment, by the government to the company, of an annual subsidy of 900,000 marks.

The African Steamship company stipulates to keep in operation for ten years a main line of steamers which are to run between Hamburg and Delagoa bay. The minimum burden of the vessels employed in the service is to be not less than 2,200 tons, and they must maintain an average of ten and a half knots per hour.

A call will be made at some one port in either Holland or Belgium, as well as at the ports of Lisbon, Naples, Port Said, Zanzibar and Dar Es Salaam. In addition to the main line of steamers thus described the company will establish an auxiliary coast service between Zanzibar and Lamu.

The vessel engaged in this service will call at Bagamoyo, Saadani, Pangani, Tanga, Dar-Es-Salaam, Pemba and Mombassa. Still another coast line service will be organized with steamers, which will stop at Kilwa, Lindi, Ibo, Quillimane and Chiloane.

ARMED WITH A SHOTGUN

A Kansas Malden Gets Away With a Party of Tramps.

KANSAS CITY, May 14.—A pretty girl and a shotgun put to flight a party of tramps at Olathe, Kan., Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duffy left their farm in the morning in charge of their daughter Clara, 23 years old, and her brother, a boy of 14. The house is near the Fort Scott and Gulf railroad, along which tramps swarm. Just before supper three rough-looking men entered the yard and demanded supper, threatening dire consequences if they were refused. Fearing trouble Miss Duffy said: "Wait a minute," and running into the house seized a shotgun.

Two of the tramps were already making away with the boy. While the leader was coming up the steps into the house a charge of shot met him and he ran from the yard yelling with pain. Without stopping, Miss Duffy fired the remaining barrel into the other two. The shot took effect, and she was left with her brother master of the situation. The tramps came to Olathe, employed a surgeon to dress their wounds and hastily disappeared. They were badly peppered, only the fineness of the shot having prevented serious results.

COLUMBUS, O., May 14.—While 450 men were working on an intercepting sewer the bottom of the regular Spring street sewer gave away, filling the new excavation with ten feet of water. Two men were swept through about 200 feet of the new sewer, but were rescued. There was no loss of lives, but several narrow escapes.

Barn and Seven Horses Burned.

GREENSBURG, Ind., May 14.—Last night the barn, seven head of horses, 400 bushels of oats and farming implements, the property of Lafayette Dales, seven miles east of this city, were burned. Loss, $2,000; insured in a home company for $600.

The Two Pension Bills

Their Difference Reported to the Senate.

BUT NO AGREEMENT REACHED.

The Senate Committee on Pensions Do Not Want Their Dependent Pension Bill Replaced By the House Pension Service Bill—Their Reasons for So Doing.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The senate pension committee yesterday presented to the senate a report recommending a disagreement to the house amendment submitting a pension service bill for the dependent pension bill. The report says that the senate bill provides that the beneficiary must be dependent upon his daily labor or upon the contributions of others not legally bound for his support, while the house amendment makes pensionable all persons who can bring themselves within its requirements irrespective of their pecuniary means.

The senate bill also fixes the rate of pension at $12 and the house bill at $8 a month. The senate bill also makes provision for dependent parents which is omitted in the house amendment. The senate bill provides that the disability shall not be the result of vicious habits; this is omitted in the house amendment. The house also provides for a service pension which the senate does not. In the opinion of the senate committee the two measures are entirely irreconcilable and in the committee's judgment the house bill is wholly inadequate.

The report says that, counting the number of disabled soldiers in the soldiers' homes and eleemosynary institutions, there are at least 25,000 disabled and dependent Union soldiers recipients of public charity. The rate of $12 a month approaches nearly the minimum of subsistence, while $8 a month undoubtedly falls far below it. If it be deemed expedient to allow a pension of $8 per month, simply because a person is disabled, that is no reason why $14 a month should be taken from the dependent soldier. The house provision benefits those who do not need a pension at the expense of those who are in absolute need.

It is the opinion of the senate committee that it is the duty of the government before entering upon any other pension legislation to provide for the needs of the disabled and dependent soldiers in the most liberal manner possible. The senate bill was framed upon this theory. Its object is relief to the needy ones and not to those who do not need. The committee think the service pension a matter which should not be involved with a disability bill. A service pension is a matter requiring the most careful consideration, in order that justice may be done both to the soldier and to the country.

Estimates prepared by Capt. Ainsworth show that the approximate aggregate cost of a service pension upon a basis of sixty-two years as the age limit will be $1,182,095,525. Upon a basis of sixty years the cost would be $1,333,109,829. Of this amount $1,079,617,024, must be paid before the end of the year 1915, and the average annual payment will be $11,523,732. It should be stated, however, that these estimates are subject to an annual reduction of $1,174,039 due to 22,595 of the pensioners already being on the rolls at an average of $4.33 a month. These estimates are materially greater than those of the house committee, but the senate committee adopt them because they seem to be based on valid reasons, and because all experience has shown that pension estimates have heretofore invariably fallen below the actual cost.

The committee do not believe the service pension would give satisfaction to the soldiers. It is preferential and invidious. It is a tontine measure. It places the man who served ninety days upon the same footing with him who served four years. It compels the youth who enlisted at 18, losing his opportunity for education, and who was discharged a veteran at 23 to wait twelve years before his claim for recognition will be entertained. It is the committee's opinion that whenever it is deemed wise to inaugurate a system of service pensions it should be done for the benefit of all living soldiers who are honorably discharged. The estimates submitted to the committee respecting the average term of service vary from eighteen to twenty-six months. On this basis, the annual charge would be $63,628,595, the whole subject, however, being largely conjectural.

With regard to the proposed appeal of the arrears act, the committee state that the secretary of the interior estimates that it would require $216,220,200 to pay the claims allowed between the date the arrears limitation went into effect and Jan. 1, 1886, and $255,143,200 to pay arrears on all claims still pending. These estimates do not apply to claims filed since the beginning of 1889.

Man and Money Gone.

PITTSBURGH, May 14.—A special from Warren, Pa., to The Leader, says: The wildest excitement prevails over the disappearance of C. L. F. Kennear, of the Pennsylvania Gas company's office. Ten thousand dollars of company's money have disappeared also. Numbers of large bills are unpaid. It is hoped he will return to make matters right. He is a son of Henry Kennear of Youngsville.

Who Owns Green County, Tex.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 14.—Governor Ross has left for Washington to see about the suit relative to the public domain known as Green county, which is claimed by the United States. He has retained Hon. John Hancock, Hon. George Clark, and will secure the services of ex-Attorney General Garland or other prominent attorneys to represent the state.

NEW YORK DEACONESSES.

A Unique Church Organization Celebrates Its First Anniversary.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The unique Episcopal church organization, known as the New York Deaconesses' Home and Training School, celebrated its first anniversary at the home, No. 241 West Fourteenth street, Monday night. The order was formed three years ago, in Chicago, by Lucy Rider Meyer. A year later its good work was endorsed by the general conference of the Methodist church. The Deaconesses minister to the poor; visit the sick, pray with the dying and devote themselves to such forms of Christian labor as may be suited to their abilities. Bishop Edward G. Andrews presided and the speaker of the evening was the founder, Lucy Rider Meyer. She related the progress made by the order since its foundation. Homes had been established in Chicago, Detroit, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Boston, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Washington. The home was crowded to its utmost.

TWENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS.

The Value Placed on a Charter for the Louisiana State Lottery Company.

NEW ORLEANS, May 14.—John A. Morris, for the Louisiana State Lottery company, yesterday offered the state legislature now in session at Baton Rouge, $1,000,000 a year for the extension of the charter of the company for twenty-five years, or $25,000,000 for the entire term. The question monopolizes political attention, and will occupy the time of the legislature until disposed of.

The fight in that body promises to be long and bitter, and with the chances at present in favor of the lottery company. All the city papers urge the acceptance of the bid, but a new journal, The Delta, which has made its appearance, and supports the governor in his opposition to the lottery.

INTERNATIONAL PRISON CONGRESS.

The United States Will Have No Official Representative.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 14.—The United States will have no official representative at the international prison congress to be held at St. Petersburg. Warden Wright, of the Western penitentiary, has received a letter from Washington, saying the government had determined that it was not expedient to have an official representative at the congress, and that full instructions had been sent Charles Emory Smith, the minister at St. Petersburg, relative to the wishes of the government in this matter. Warden Wright had intended going in case a government representative had been decided upon. He says W. F. M. Rowis, of New York, now in Europe, will attend as a representative of a prisoner association, as will also F. M. Sanborn, of Massachusetts.

A DAY OF DISCUSSION.

Proceedings of the M. E. Conference South in Session at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—At the Methodist conference yesterday reports were received from several committees and Bible societies connected with the church. Considerable discussion was had on what day they should adopt as children's day. No conclusion was reached. A small attempt to break down the rule with regard to the four years' limit of residence of a preacher in one place. The matter has been postponed till later in the conference.

The report of the committee recommending that parts of the church ritual be printed in the hymn book was discussed by nearly every member of the committee. It was decided to print parts of the ritual in the hymn book. Adjourned for the day.

A Discharged Waiter's Revenge.

CHICAGO, May 14.—A bold attempt was made to assassinate George Heinzi-man, a well known saloonkeeper, about 7 o'clock last night. While Maj. Heinzi-man was sitting at a table in his saloon, at 120 La Salle street, talking with friends, Oscar Klampf, a recently discharged waiter, entered the front door and fired two shots at short range at him. One shot took effect in the left side, inflicting a severe, though not dangerous, wound. Klampf then fled, but was captured and locked up. He claimed Heinzi-man owed him, which he refused to pay.

To Succeed Senator Beck.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 14.—At 8:10 o'clock yesterday evening the Democratic joint legislative caucus assembled and immediately went into the nomination of candidates for United States senator. Representative J. G. Carlisle, ex-Governor Proctor Knott, Hon. L. T. Moore and ex-Judge Lindsay were placed in nomination. Just as the chairman of the caucus was ordering a ballot, a motion was made from the anti-Carlisle faction to adjourn. The motion was carried by a vote of 60 to 40. Several Carlisle men, however, voted for adjournment.

Children's Narrow Escape.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., May 14.—Yesterday evening, about 6 o'clock, the C. H. & D. accommodation westbound ran down five children on a trestle over the creek just east of town. Some of them leaped from the trestle into the stream, but two were knocked off by the locomotive, which had been slowed up, but not in time to save the children from injury. One of them, a little girl 10 or 12 years of age, had an arm broken and was otherwise injured. The others fortunately escaped with only an ugly ducking.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 14.—Frank A. Hedges, a Columbus carriage trimmer, on the Red Men's excursion to Cincinnati, slipped while boarding a train here yesterday morning and fell under the wheels. He was dragged one hundred feet, clinging with one hand to the handhold. He was horribly mangled and died shortly after being rescued.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1890.

For Judge of the Superior Court,

L. W. ROBERTSON,
of Maysville,

Subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Our dispatches give the latest from the Senatorial fight at Frankfort. It's the field against the favorite.

Hon. JOHN D. HARRIS says he is not a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and clinches the matter by saying he will not be a candidate under any consideration. This sets at rest the rumor that Young-Harris combination.

The opening shots have been fired in the fight for the Appellate Clerkship. George H. Madden has captured two counties—Davies and Henderson—and Captain Mait Adams one—Mason. The contest promises to be lively from now until the 28th of this month when the convention will meet at Louisville to end the struggle.

That Stalwart Republican paper, the Philadelphia Press, predicts that "a deficit for the fiscal year 1891 will be reported on the eve of the next Presidential election." The amount of that deficit is put by the Press at seventy-two millions of dollars. Republicans are realizing that something of the kind is staring them in the face, and are trying to call a halt to the raid on the treasury. It is doubtful, however, whether they can succeed now in staying the raiders.

This Bourbon News thinks "if the election of United States Senator was left to the voters at large, Governor Buckner would get eight out of every ten votes." The News is way off. The only endorsement the Governor has received for Senator comes from his home, Hart County. On the other hand county after county is instructing for Carlisle, Mason, B'n, Montgomery, Grant and Jefferson have already spoken and their choice is the distinguished ex-Speaker. The News would have hit the nail on the head if it had substituted Carlisle's name for Buckner's in the above paragraph.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

Ex-President Cleveland Gives His Views on Their Declaration of Principles.

A few weeks ago J. A. Hill, Corresponding Secretary of Oak Grove Lodge, No. 22 Farmers' Alliance, near Steubenville, O., wrote to Ex-President Cleveland, inclosing a copy of the declaration of purposes of the Alliance, and asking for Mr. Cleveland's views thereon. Following are copies of the declaration of purposes and Mr. Cleveland's reply to the letter:

DECLARATION OF PURPOSES.
Profoundly impressed that we, the Farmers' Alliance, united by the strong and faithful ties of financial and home interests, should set forth our declarations of intentions, we therefore resolve to strive to secure the establishment of right and justice to ourselves and our posterity.
To labor for the education of the agricultural classes in the science of economical government in a strictly non-partisan spirit.
To endorse the motto: "In things essential, unity; in all things, charity."
To secure purity of the elective franchise, and to induce all voters to intelligently exercise it for the enactment and execution of laws which will express the most advanced public sentiment upon all questions involving the interests of laborers and farmers.
To develop a better state, mentally, morally, socially and financially.
To constantly strive to secure entire harmony and good will among all mankind and brotherly love among ourselves.
To suppress personal, local, sectional and national prejudices, all unhealthful rivalry and all selfish ambition.
To assuage the sufferings of a brother and sister, bury the dead, care for the widows and educate the orphans; to exercise charity toward offenders; to construe words and purposes in their most favorable light, granting every opportunity of purpose and good intentions to others, and to protect the principles of the Alliance unto death.

MR. CLEVELAND'S REPLY.
March 24, 1890.
J. A. Hill, Corresponding Secretary, etc.—Dear Sir: I have received your letter accompanied by a copy of the declaration of principles of the Farmers' Alliance.
I see nothing in this declaration that can not be fully endorsed by any man who loves his country, who believes that the object of our Government should be the freedom, prosperity and happiness of all people, and who believes that justice and fairness to all are necessary conditions to its useful administration.
It has always seemed to me that the farmers of the country were especially interested in an equitable adjustment of our tariff system. The indifference they have shown to that question, and the ease with which they have been led away from a sober consideration of their needs and their interests related to this subject, have excited my surprise. Struggle as they may, our farmers must continue to be purchasers and consumers of numberless things enhanced in cost by tariff regulations. Surely they have the right to insist that this cost shall not be increased for the purpose of collecting unnecessary revenue or to give undue advantage to domestic manufacturers. The plea that our infant industries need the protection which this impoverishes the farmer and consumer is, in view of our natural advantages and the skill and energy of our people, a hollow pretext.

Struggle as they may, our farmers can not escape the conditions which fix the price of wheat they produce and sell according to the rates which prevail in foreign markets flooded with the competition of countries enjoying freer exchange of trade than we. The plausible presentation of the blessing of a home market should not deceive our depressed and impoverished agriculturist. There is no home market for them when does not take its instructions from the seaboard, and the seaboard transmits the word of the foreign markets.
Because my conviction that there should be a modification of our tariff laws arose principally from an appreciation of the wants of the vast army of consumers, comprising our farmers, our artisans and our workmen, and because their condition has led me to protest against present impositions, I am especially pleased to see those sections of my fellow-countrymen arousing themselves to the importance of tariff reform. Yours, very truly,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

The State Weather Service in its weekly report says: "The average temperature of the past week was decidedly below the normal, the lowest being recorded on the 7th and 8th. On the morning of both these days light frosts occurred in exposed places through the northern portion of the State; but little if any damage resulted from them, however.

"The rainfall was generally less than the average, and was very unevenly distributed, light showers occurring nearly every day. Amount of sunshine was about normal. Upon the whole, the conditions were not favorable to the advancement of crops. The soil, being cool and wet, could not be worked, and from the same cause the growth of vegetation was checked to some degree. From the present outlook the prospect is for a considerable shortage in the wheat crop. Small fruits do not look so promising as could be desired. Corn planting is progressing slowly. Gardens doing fairly well. Grasses and oats in fair condition. Tobacco plants late and not doing well, owing to the poor quality of seed."

London's Lord Mayor

Tenders a Reception to Henry M. Stanley.

ENGLAND'S LOST OPPORTUNITY.

The African Explorer Tells Why the Congo Country Belongs to Belgium and East Africa to Germany—Various Other Dispatches From Across the Ocean.

LONDON, May 14.—The reception of Henry M. Stanley by the lord mayor and the corporation of London, in the Guild hall, yesterday, was attended by 2,000 enthusiastic guests. The lord mayor presented Mr. Stanley with a gold casket containing an address from the London corporation, to which Stanley responded, thanking his entertainers for the honor conferred upon him.

The Congo country might have belonged to England, he said, if Englishmen had listened to the lectures he delivered between 1878 and 1884. The consequence is that Belgium is reaping 100 per cent. of the benefits. England might of had East Africa, but her journalists see everything through an opaque glass, and Germany to-day has the lion's share and cannot fail to win the Congo country in the long run.

The Germans, he said, have a monarch who is wide awake. Maj. Wissmann never heard of such things as the Quakerism, peace societies, anti-enterprise companies and nobby-pammy journalism, which are clogs to every hearty endeavor in England. He expressed hope that the government would remember the services of his companions and not chill their young souls with the neglect which first warped poor Gordon after his heroic achievements in China.

Forming a New Compact.

LONDON, May 14.—A dispatch to The Times from Vienna says that the removal of Prince Bismarck decided the czar to reverse his policy of an alliance with France, and to revert to the policy of forming an alliance with Germany. The czar, it is asserted, always distrusted the stability of the French republic, but it was impossible for him to agree with Germany while Bismarck was in office. It is thought probable that the meeting of the czar and the kaiser at Krasnoe-Selov will result in a compact which will altogether change the grouping of the European powers.

Burns Backs Down.

LONDON, May 14.—The great debate on the eight-hour question between Mr. Charles Bradlaugh and Mr. John Burns, the labor agitator, which was announced to take place as soon as a suitable hall could be secured, has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the withdrawal of Mr. Burns. Inasmuch as Mr. Burns was the challenging party much surprise has been caused by his action, for which no adequate reason is given.

Soldiers Suicide.

PARIS, May 14.—Advices from Katonou state that during the exchange of prisoners nine soldiers of the King of Dahomey committed suicide by drowning themselves in the harbor, rather than return to service.

The Germans have abandoned their factory at Whydah. The king continues his hostile attitude.

Falset for Half a Million.

LONDON, May 14.—The announcement is made that the firm of Robert Shaw & Sons, of Bradford, owners of one of the largest cotton spinning mills in England, have become so greatly embarrassed as to necessitate their assignment for the benefit of their creditors. The liabilities of the firm are $500,000.

The New Explosive Explodes.

ROME, May 14.—A quantity of ballistite, the new explosive, exploded yesterday at the factory for the manufacture of arms at Avigliana, fourteen miles west of Turin. Fourteen persons were instantly killed and many others were injured, some of them fatally.

No Fears for Wissmann.

BERLIN, May 14.—In the reichstag yesterday Baron Marcell von Bieberstein, minister of foreign affairs, declared that Maj. Wissmann had a splendid force under his command, and that there was no fear of rebellion or defeat.

Germany Extending Her Trade.

BERLIN, May 14.—The German government has granted a subsidy of 1,000,000 marks annually to a new steamship company, which proposes running a line of steamers between German and South East African ports.

To Rescue Major Panitz.

VIENNA, May 14.—Armed bands are forming in Macedonia for the purpose of making an attempt to rescue Maj. Panitz, now imprisoned, and shortly to be tried in Sofia for conspiracy to kill Prince Ferdinand.

Strikers Renew Their Rioting.

HAMBURG, May 14.—The strikers resumed their rioting last night and were dispersed by the mounted police. The main street is now cordoned by police and arrests are being made of all disorderly persons.

England the Dictator.

ROME, May 14.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday Premier Crispi said the triple alliance was solely a defensive one. Nothing would be done without the approval of England.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., May 14.—There are several cases of glanders among horses here. State Health Commissioner Bowman and State Veterinarian Knowles were here yesterday to investigate, and found four cases in one stable. The disease came here through a pony bought out of a herd from the west. It is feared the disease may spread.

Railroad Extension.

WABASH, Ind., May 14.—Officials here of the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan railway state that the contract has been let for the construction of the southern extension of the line from Anderson to Rushville, and that work is to begin within five days from this date. Trains are to be running over the new track by Aug. 15.
